

Knap-in at Lynches River County Park

May 8-9, 2015

friday 11:00 - 5:00

saturday 10:00 - 5:00

Watch how to make arrowheads and knives from stone!

Free Admission

Vendors will offer reproduction stone tools, flint, knapping tools and unique crafts. Enjoy hiking, canoeing and the canopy and river walk among towering cypress trees. Vendor fee $15 & camping $8 per night.

Events:

 Flintknapping (stone tool making)

Spear throwing with the Atlatl and Dart

Artifact Identification Table

Auction & Archaeology Talk on Saturday

Visit our website for more information, maps and knapper registration.

<http://www.assc.net/events/knapin> | Find us on Facebook!

From Florence: Take US 52 south for 12 miles, take the first right past the Lynches River Bridge onto Old Number 4. Go 2 miles and turn right onto County Park Road.

GPS: 5094 County Park Rd. Coward, SC 29530 | 34.038436, -79.789238

Contact Michael Miller for more info: 330-224-0016 or michael@flintknappers.com

Sponsored by

The Archaeological Society of South Carolina

